

Private Art Lessons

Prepared and Taught by Ms. Courtney

Available on Wednesdays

$60 per hour for individuals; up to 3 additional students per lesson for an additional $10 each
Each lesson will last 1 hour. Email cmtaylor.artist@gmail.com to register! Classes begin in October.

OVERVIEW & PURPOSE

Each private lesson will be geared towards students who would like a little extra time spent CREATING during their school week. Opportunities for drawing, painting, sculpture, and more will engage students in creative practices that they are passionate about.

Students will also get an opportunity to investigate Art History, the Elements of Art, and the Principles of Design. At the end of each lesson, students will get the chance to reflect on what they've learned and think deeply about what they have created during the lesson.

EDUCATION STANDARDS

1. Evoke deep meaningful engagement in the arts.
2. Choice-Based Artistic Expectations- "Follow the Child."
3. Empower students to think independently and to help create personally-meaningful artworks.

MATERIALS NEEDED

- All art materials will be provided.
- A delicious snack will also be provided!

"Imagination does not become great until human beings, given the courage and strength, use it to create."
